Catholic U Closed By Priest's Ouster

WASHINGTON (AP) — A cardinal and an archbishop on Catholic University's board of trustees are backing a young priest-professor whose ouster generated a mass student-faculty strike that has closed the institution.

The Rev. Charles E. Curran, 33, who says he apparently was fired for his liberal views on moral theology and birth control, has received the backing of Lawrence Cardinal Shehan of Baltimore and the Most Rev. Paul J. Hallinan of Atlanta. The 600-member university faculty and 6,000-member student body almost all stayed away from classrooms Thursday.

The faculty passed a resolution pledging to stay on strike until Father Curran's contract is renewed. Many students carried signs supporting Father

Ask Cavanagh Recalled In Crime Protest

DETROIT (AP) — A distinguished Detroit clergyman and a member of the city's common Council both have called for the ouster of Mayor Jerome Cavanagh because of the Motor City's soaring crime rate.

Apparently acting separately, the two said they believed Cavanagh should be recalled from office by the voters. Cavanagh was elected to a second four-year term in 1965.

The recall move was made by Rev. Dr. E. T. Bernthal, 69, pastor for 47 years of Epiphany Lutheran Church, and Mary Beck, a council member who has often feuded with Cavanagh over the crime rate.

Only hours after Councilwoman Beck's recall demand Thursday, the 15-year-old son of Detroit's police band director was stabbed to death near a doorway of Cobo Hall, Detroit's big convention center.

George Overman Jr., a 10th grade student who played the trombone, was on his way to play in a concert with his school band when he met his death. Police later questioned two teenagers.

The boy, son of Police Band Director George Overman, crawled or stumbled to an elevator inside the building and died.

Declaring that his decision was "agonizing," The Rev. Dr. Bernthal said the mayor has failed to deal effectively with crime. He said he will ask Cavanagh's recall from the pulpit Sunday.

"Since the mayor and Police Commissioner Ray Girardin are apparently unwilling or unable to do anything, I'm going to suggest they should be recalled," he said.

Mrs. Beck, often at odds with the mayor, said Cavanagh is more interested in building his national image than solving Detroit's problems.

Cavanagh, contacted in New York where he spoke to a national medical meeting, said: "I am highly contemptuous of the highly personalized attack on me."

"What is her proposed solution to the great problems of crime in our city?"

Astronomer Says Space Race Even

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Sir Bernard Lovell, British astronomer who keeps informal score on U.S. and Soviet space ventures, says the race appears about even now.

"I wouldn't take a bet on who is now ahead. But this summer I might because of what the Russians might come up with in the near future," Sir Bernard said Thursday night at a Merritt College dinner.

He directs the University of Manchester's observatory at Jodrell Bank.

Cardinal Shehan, in Rome attending a plenary session of the secretariat for Christian unity, issued a statement through his Baltimore office saying Father Curran should be "restored to his former status."

Cardinal Shehan said, "The entire matter should be referred to the full board of trustees for consideration."

In Atlanta, Archbishop Hallinan agreed Father Curran should be reinstated.

"I think he is a very competent man and, more important, his academic peers recommended him for a permanent teaching position," said Archbishop Hallinan. "In view of that, it was unwise for the trustees to act in a situation in which faculty members were not heard."

Time Petitions Shy Two-Thirds

LANSING (AP) — The leader of a group favoring Daylight Saving Time for Michigan said Thursday that volunteers have collected between 70,000 and 80,000 signatures in a drive to put the issue to a vote of the people.

"We are only one-third of the way to our goal of 225,000," said Sen. Raymond Dzendzel, D-Detroit. "But we just began receiving the bulk of our returns in the mail this week."

Dzendzel, whose group seeks a referendum on a new state law exempting Michigan from saving time provision of a 1966 federal law, said 65,000 petitions distributed throughout the state have a potential return of 1.3 million signatures.

Approximately 124,000 signatures would be needed to put the issue on the ballot.

Meanwhile, the State Court of Appeals is considering a suit by a group of farm, theater and bowling alley interests asking the court to forbid state officials to accept the petitions until the Legislature adjourns.

The suit also asks the court to rule the petitions until the Legislature adjourns.

The suit also asks the court to rule the petitions meaningless unless filed before April 30, the effective date of Federal Saving Time.

Auction Bentley Livestock Today

OWOSSO (AP) — A livestock auction today at St. Louis marked the beginning of the end for one of Michigan's showplace farms.

More than 1,000 head of feeder steers as well as Angus breeding cattle from Alvin M. Bentley began a move to Central America where he will again enter the cattle business.

Bentley, the son of former U.S. Congressman Alvin M. Bentley, has announced that he will leave Michigan to set up another farm in British Honduras. The senior Bentley is chairman of the project, Michigan Partners of the Alliance with British Honduras.

The auction, termed one of the biggest of its kind in the state in recent years, was expected to gross more than $150,000, said officials of the Michigan Livestock Exchange.

UAW To Vote On 35-Hr. Week

By A. F. MAHAN

DETROIT (AP) — Although some delegates forecast a strike would be necessary to win major goals already on the table, Walter P. Reuther, United Auto Workers president, has agreed to let his union vote on adding a 35-hour week to 1967 contract demands.

Some 3,000 delegates attending a goal-setting convention of the 1.4 million-member union will vote on the resolution.

Reuther has pleaded for "flexibility" when he begins bargaining in early July on new agreements with General Motors, Ford and Chrysler. He has opposed writing any dollars-and-cents or hours-per-week figures into demands.

But under pressure from dissidents, led by a group of delegates from Cleveland, Ohio, Reuther agreed Thursday to let a 35-hour week proposal come to a vote later.

Predict Strike

Ray Battistelli of Utica, Mich., and Tom Bradford of Dearborn, Mich., were among delegates predicting from the floor a strike would be necessary to win a substantial wage increase, a guaranteed annual income, parity for Canadian auto workers, higher and earlier pensions and a major portion of other demands recommended by Reuther.

"I believe we're going to have a hell of a struggle and I believe we are going to have to hit the bricks," said Battistelli, who forecast that if a strike comes "LBJ will call in Walter Reuther and say, 'We can't have this disrupting the economy with a war going on.'"

"I think brother Reuther should tell LBJ our dispute is with management of the companies, which is getting richer all the time, not with the government."

Ask More Wages

Reuther later told reporters he expects to avoid federal interference and hopes a strike can be avoided.

"We will bargain within the framework of optimism," Reuther said.

While he put no cents-per-hour figure on goals staked out for new contracts in the automotive, agricultural implement, aerospace and allied industries, Reuther said the union will be shooting for more this year than it got in 1964.

Wage and fringe gains in that package variously were estimated to have been worth 54 to 57 cents hourly. The Bureau of Labor Statistics figures the current average hourly wage in the automotive industry is $3.36.

Improve Conditions

Nadine Brown, a Detroit, drew one of the opening day's biggest ovations when she shouted for "improvement in working conditions" to be put ahead of "wages or flexibility or anything else." She complained of speed-up, among other things.

Among some 30 demands proposed by the convention's resolutions committee and applauded by Reuther are two which would permit members to strike when work they feel they should be doing is farmed to an outside contractor or parts are obtained from a nonunion shop.

Company-paid auto insurance is promised serious consideration in this year's bargaining, along with a proposal that the union seek uniform, national hospital-medical coverage and establishment of a fund to provide college scholarships for workers and their children.

A bonus to be paid when a worker leaves on vacation is included in demands for a second time. So is the gearing of pensions to the cost of living index.

Industrial Park Site Gets Council Favor

Bay de Noc Community College is to receive from the City of Escanaba approximately 130 acres on U. S. 2-41 at the Danforth Road as the site for its new campus.

The approving action was taken by the City Council Thursday night, climaxing a controversial situation that involved the Council, the College trustees, the Planning Commission and the Escanaba Foundation.

Mayor Harold Vanierberghe noted that neither he nor any member of the Council had described the other site as "swamp" but that he had said that it would require money to raise the area to grade for building.

He further directed attention to a statement by the Escanaba Foundation in which it supported the recommendation of the Planning Commission. The statement was that the Escanaba Foundation Board was "in complete accord" with the Commission.

The Mayor said that he is a voting member of the Board of the Escanaba Foundation and that he had never attended such a meeting or been asked to attend one. "Let's keep the record straight on some of these things," he said.

In other business the Council

Approved a request from Harold C. Hayes, House of Ludington proprietor, to continue his "decorations" in front of the hotel. This includes plantings and chain fence at the curb line when C.

George Harvey said he was assured was "no problem" for the city.

Students Greeted

Greeted students of Holy Name High School who have been elected by the students to city positions as part of their study of local government. They were: Dan Pfeffer, municipal judge, and George Ruch Jr., Bobby DeGrande, Tom Amnell, Nancy Casey and Gladys Micheau, to the "City Council."

Heard the city manager report, in response to a question, that he was advised by John Walch that at this time development of a shopping center on S. 23rd St. is "at a standstill."

Accepted the bid of Windsor Lumber Co. of Escanaba to install floor covering in the police station at a cost of $1,286.

Approved, subject to the city manager and city attorney, the low bids of Gustafson Oil Co. of Green Bay to supply the city with asphalt; and the U. P. Concrete Pipe Co. of Escanaba, to supply the city with sewer pipe.

Set May 4 for a hearing on assessment for improvement of an alley between N. 19th and 20th Sts. from 7th to 8th Aves. N.

Consulted briefly with Norman Arntzen of G. Arntzen Architects, Escanaba, concerning the proposed new recreation building, and set Wednesday, May 3, for a further discussion of the project with the architect and the Recreation Commission.

Received from City Attorney John G. Erickson an opinion regarding the use of the Catherine Bonifas trust fund and indicated its intention to ask for a court decree to use 75 per cent of the approximately $300,000 for a recreation facility and 25 per cent for a new city hall. The Council serves as trustees of the Bonifas funds.

Firestone, Goodrich And Uniroyal Down

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The United Rubber Workers Union struck three of the big four rubber companies today as contracts expired at midnight. More than 50,000 union jobs were affected.

It was the first company-wide strike since 1965 when the rubber workers' main pact expired against the U.S. Rubber Co., now Uniroyal.

A union spokesman said it was the biggest since 1959 when the union called walkouts against the same companies struck early today — the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., the B.F. Goodrich Co. and Uniroyal.

Word of the breakdown in about 10:30 p.m. Thursday. The Goodrich strike was announced shortly after midnight, and Uniroyal was struck a few minutes later.

Picket lines across the country were manned, according to a URW spokesman, while negotiations continued with Goodrich early today.

Willig To Talk

The union said Firestone officials were willing to renew negotiations today, but a company spokesman had no comment on the statement.

No talks were planned in the Uniroyal dispute.

Negotiators for about 21,250 workers at the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. voted to continue work on a day-to-day basis. Sessions were scheduled to resume with Goodyear at 10 a.m. today.

The four rubber companies and the General Tire and Rubber Co. agreed, effective April 1, that they would give mutual aid to any one of the five struck by the rubber workers.

General's contract expires May 15. Negotiations got under way Monday in Cleveland.

The union continued its joint policy with the rubber industry of not releasing details of negotiations until bargaining is completed.

"Full Employment"

When negotiations began last month, however, the rubber workers said its goals included a "substantial wage increase," plus increases in skilled trades rates, elimination of "unwarranted wage differentials" and a "full employment earnings program."

The earnings program as outlined by the union would boost benefits for laid-off workers to 92½ per cent of regular pay.

The union said the program could be financed by raising the employer's contribution from the present five cents to seven cents an hour per worker.

The supplemental unemployment benefits now pay up to 65 per cent of laid-off worker's regular pay for 26 weeks, union researches estimate.

Present wage range from $2.25 to $3.35 an hour for semi-skilled or unskilled labor. A URW spokesman said recent U.S. government reports indicate the tire and tube division employees, considered the highest paid in the industry, make about $3.67 an hour.

Police Impound Jar Of Money Dug Up By Dog

SAGINAW (AP) — The grocery store clerk didn't pay much attention when Joseph Emiehl, 8, and John Koetenko, 10, tried to buy a loaf of bread with a $100 bill.

"You know how kids are always playing jokes with play money," explained Mrs. Carl Wagner, who was busy waiting on customers. "But was I ever surprised when police came in a little later and asked me if I saw any kids with money?"

The boys said they got the money from a jar dug up by "Sandy," a dog owned by Mrs. Robert Pufahl. The hole was dug under the back porch of the house where she lives.

The money was taken into custody by Police Chief Joseph Bugenske, who said several persons are claiming it belongs to them. He declined to say how much was found, but Mrs. Pufahl said it was more than $3,000.

GOP Legislator Dies In Office

LANSING (AP) — State Rep. James S. Nunneley, a first-term Republican from Mount Clemens who seldom missed an appointment and seldom spoke on the floor of the House, died Thursday night in his Capitol Building office.

The quiet, 56-year-old widower apparently suffered a heart attack shortly after 9 p.m., when he returned from dinner following a lengthy House Republican caucus.

Nunneley was the second Michigan legislator to die this year. House Democratic leader Joseph J. Kowalski of Detroit suffered a stroke March 16, also in the Capitol Building, and died two days later.

Nunneley's death leaves the House deadlocked again, with 54 Republicans and 54 Democrats.

Gov. George Romney will schedule a special election to fill his 75th District seat. Romney previously picked May 23 as the date to fill Kowalski's seat. The Legislature's current schedule sets May 19 as the final date for passing bills.

McGoff On U.P.

Northern Called Growth Trigger For Marquette

Marquette will experience a 59.6 per cent increase in population in the brief span of 25 years — from 1963 to 1990 — John P. McGoff told the annual meeting of the Marquette Chamber of Commerce Thursday afternoon in the Northwoods Supper Club, Marquette.

The president of Panax Corp., said the population of Marquette County has grown 7.6 per cent and the population of the City of Marquette 15.2 per cent since 1960.

"The most dramatic changes (since 1960) have come in the Marquette urbanized areas — the city and the Townships of Chocoma, Marquette and Sandus, with one of the Townships (Chocoma) sky-rocketing by 82.7 per cent," McGoff said.

By 1970, the population of Marquette County will have increased by 8,400 over 1960, to 68,125; by 1980 to 81,216 and by 1990 to 96,423 to 81,216 to 113,009.

Confidence In U.P.
"Panax believes that the U.P. has a bright future, that the Upper Peninsula is definitely on the move," McGoff said, pointing out that bank deposits in the 1965-66 fiscal year increased 27.6 per cent and passenger air traffic to and from Marquette has nearly doubled in the past four years.

Much of the impetus for Marquette's growth has come from expansion of Northern Michigan University, McGoff noted. "The good fortune this educational institution has brought to the area in dollars as well as in other ways is inestimable," the speaker said. "It is one of your biggest businesses. In fact, education is America's biggest business today — $50 billion last year and growing at the rate of 12 per cent per year."

Paying tribute to the leadership of Dr. Edgar L. Harden, NMU president, McGoff said "the growth of Northern has provided the business community untold benefits, and it will continue to provide benefits far beyond the imagination of many."

Investment, Participation
Because of the opportunities in this region, McGoff urged absentee owners to consider investing a larger portion of their earnings in the Upper Peninsula and that those living here also should consider more seriously investing more of their own money in new businesses, housing and risk capital ventures.

"It has been said that the Upper Peninsula is one of the most conservative areas in the entire United States, and I must agree with that," McGoff said. "And it has been said that the concept of 'let someone else do it,' let someone else take the risk has been prevalent for years. If this assumption is true, we must change it. For only if we are involved can we determine our economic, political and social destiny."

Community Gaffly
McGoff discussed the role in the communities it serves of Panax Corp., whose Upper Peninsula properties include The Mining Journal, Escanaba Daily Press and Iron Mountain News.

"This company is pledged to a creative future, and we are not going to be bogged down with yesterday's hurts and disappointments, sorrows, frustrations or missed opportunities and unaccepted challenges," McGoff said.

"We shall be the community gaffly — and when I say community, I include the university, just in case someone might think I have been sent as an emissary of that institution. We shall be the irritant as well as the supporter. We shall be the critic when the general welfare calls for criticism and a booster when the occasion calls for a pat on the back and a 'well done.'"

"We hope that at times our abrasiveness will at the same time serve a polishing effect on the readers' mind, emotions and ambitions. I know these are the kinds of newspapers you want: Responsible reporters gathering news and information in the finest traditions of journalism, always with a view to furthering the growth, prosperity and general well-being of their respective communities and the Upper Peninsula as a whole."

Red Cross Is Active In War

Fifty years of service in Delta County were marked at a board meeting of the Delta County Chapter of the American Red Cross Wednesday in the Chamber of Commerce Building.

Bruce Christy, Red Cross field representative, and Margaret Bennett, R.N., national home nursing representative, met with the board.

Christy complimented the Delta County Chapter for the good job it has done with limited resources and cited changes the Red Cross is making, such as offering classes for water safety for small craft and more first aid for highway accidents. More youth volunteers were being used in many of the Red Cross programs.

Christy said that the Red Cross is meeting the challenge of the war with 325 professional workers in Vietnam as well as services to military families here at home.

Mrs. Bennett spoke on the home nursing courses offered by the Red Cross. The Board, with Cecil Chase as chairman meets on a quarterly basis and will meet again in July.

Troopers Nab Boys With Car

A car stealing spree through Wisconsin and Upper Michigan ended abruptly for a pair of 14-year-old boys Thursday after they stole a car in Rapid River.

State Police of the Manistique Post stopped the car less than a half hour after it had been reported stolen on U. S. 2 and 41 near Garden Corners and the two boys are in custody of juvenile authorities today awaiting arrival of their parents.

Officers said the boys, one from Elmwood Park, Ill., and the other from Wyandotte, Mich., were headed for Lower Michigan. Police said they stole a car in Wisconsin, abandoning it at Marinette and driving away another.

The car from Marinette was abandoned at Rapid River where they took a car owned by James Muffler at Rapid River. Muffler reported the car stolen to State Police at 6 p. m. The boys were in custody at 6:26 p. m.

Welcome Anyway

EL CAJON, Calif. Bark River-Harris PTA Elects Officers

Paul Blewett was elected president of the Bark River-Harris PTA at the meeting held Wednesday night in the elementary school. Joseph Sagataw was elected president of the Bronco Boosters Club. Other officers of the PTA are: Vice-President, William Good; Secretary, Mrs. William Good; Treasurer, Mrs. Melvin Teal; Historian, Mrs. Robert Bell. Serving with Sagataw for the Bronco Boosters are: William Good, secretary; Marvin Ray, treasurer.

Speakers at the meeting were Theodore Kamaraimein who spoke on Social Security and Dr. Mary Creten of the Delta-Menominee Health Department who gave highlights of the duties of the department.

Three and four year old preschoolers, second, fifth and eighth grade students are eligible to participate in the summer dental topical fluoride application program which will be held at the school from June 8 through 12. The dental assistant, a young woman who has no car, would like lodging in a private home. Anyone who has a room available please contact Mrs. Wayne Teal, area chairman, or Mrs. Leo Knaf, co-chairman.

Mrs. Ellsworth Nault and Mrs. Edward Motto will audit the treasurer's book before the May meeting. Anyone working with any church or civic organization is asked to notify the PTA of the time of scheduled meetings so a community calendar can be made up to avoid a conflict of activities.

A PTA Convention will be held in Menominee, Tuesday, May 9 with a workshop at 3 p. m., dinner at 6 and an evening meeting at 7:30.

Lunch was served by eighth grade mothers, Mrs. Frank Adams and Mrs. Francis Derocher, hostesses.

Seek Identity Of Skeleton At Dollar Bay

HOUGHTON (AP) A Skeleton found on a garbage dump near Dollar Bay may be that of one of two men who have been missing in the area, Houghton County officials said Thursday.

Authorities also said the son of one of the men has altered his story of how the father disappeared.

The missing men are Jack Byrd, who disappeared about six months ago, and William Neuman, 56, who disappeared last Oct. 3.

Prosecutor Walter Dartland said Neuman's son, Daniel, 20, home on leave from the Army last October, first told police in a signed statement that his father fell into Dollar Bay apparently after suffering a heart attack.

Dartland said young Neuman declared Thursday that his father accidentally killed himself Oct. 3, when, during an argument between the two, an axe slipped from the father's hand and struck him on the head.

The prosecutor said that young Neuman, in another signed statement, said he threw the father's body on the garbage dump.

The skeleton had suffered a heavy blow to the side of the head, State Police laboratory technicians said.

Magician Sets Escanaba Show

Magician Richard Oslund, billed as a "master of illusion and confusion," will return to his home town for an appearance Sunday, April 30, at Bonifas Auditorium.

The program is sponsored by St. Anne's Holy Name Society. Son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Oslund, 2405 Lake Shore Dr., Richard, 35, is a graduate of St. Joseph High School. He is also a veteran of the U.S. Navy, serving during the Korean war.

Born in Escanaba, Oslund has had over 20 years of experience in entertainment work. He has appeared in night clubs, theatres, auditoriums, school and college stages and on television throughout the United States.

He has also performed in such unusual spots as on board a Navy aircraft carrier and atop a Swiss mountain. Besides performing, Oslund also gives lessons to magicians and has lectured before magicians' societies.

He is currently developing a lecture type program which will dramatize safety messages for elementary school children by using tricks of magic.

College Sets Summer Slate

Sixteen courses ranging from philosophy to physical education will be offered this summer at Bay de Noc Community College.

Summer classes will begin Tuesday, June 20, and continue through Friday, Aug. 11. Final registration will be Monday, June 19, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. in the student personnel office, room 17, of the college. Students may preregister by securing materials from the student personnel office.

All classes will be held Tuesday through Friday for the eight-week season unless otherwise scheduled. Most of the courses will carry four credits.

In the business section, beginning and intermediate typing, shorthand, office practice and secretarial science classes are offered. Other courses include an English class, rhetoric and composition; introduction to technology; introduction to philosophy; elements of geography and general chemistry.

A special speech correction course will be offered for three weeks beginning June 20. Physical education courses will be offered. Details are available from the college.

Physical Exams Can Be Speeded

In the next few months, students and prospective students will be getting physical examinations for school, college, camping, and employment, says Dr. Mary Creten, director of the Delta Menominee Health Department.

"To facilitate testing persons requiring physical examinations should obtain a record of immunizations beforehand, if they do not already have one," said Dr. Creten.

"In addition, all portions of the forms should be filled out except those that need to be completed by the physician."

All materials, specimens, permits, etc., should be brought along at the time of the examination.

Sheep on the Falkland Islands outnumber people 300 to 1.

Heroic Brother Tries, But Girl Drowns In Escanaba River

GWINN — The body of Catherine Flannery, 3-year-old daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. Edward Flannery of Gwinn, was recovered about 9:30 a.m. today from the Escanaba River by Marquette State Police.

The body was found by the pilot of a helicopter from Kincheloe Air Force Base in about four feet of water about one mile downstream from where she had fallen into the river at the junction of the Middle and East Branches of the Escanaba, shortly before noon Thursday.

Her brother, Shawn, 4, who was playing with her on the bank of the river, tried in vain to save her after she fell into the water. He jumped in behind her but had to struggle to get back to shore and the swift current of the swollen river swept her out of his reach.

A full scale search was started about noon. Marquette State Police, Gwinn Police, planes from the Civil Air Patrol, Conservation Department and Kincheloe AFB and air policemen from Sawyer Air Force Base were used in the search. Several Gwinn residents also aided in the search with private boats.

The girl's father, who is in the Philippines on a permanent change of station, was being flown home today.

He served in the comptroller's office at Sawyer AFB prior to his assignment in the Philippines. His family is living in Gwinn while he looks for housing in the islands.

Spring Concert Set By Bands

The Spring Concert of the Escanaba Area public school bands will be held at 7:30 p.m. next Thursday at the William W. Oliver auditorium in the junior high school.

David Laakso will direct the Junior High "A" and "B" bands and John Chown the High School varsity and concert bands.

Selections to be performed range from the "St. Louis Blues March," to the difficult "American Overture for Band."

Admission is free, but a free will offering will be taken to help defray expenses of summer band camps.

Scouts Learn Conservation

A group of 10 senior Girl Scouts from Troop 1 of Escanaba may not know too much about conservation today, but by June 6 they sure will.

By that date the girls will have completed a series of eight one-hour classes conducted by the Michigan Dept. of Conservation leading to the Girl Scout Ranger Aide merit badge.

Two of the classes have already been held with six more to follow once a week throughout the rest of April and May. Classes include general conservation, conservation law enforcement, fish management, forest fire protection, business operations and career opportunities, game management, geology and water pollution and tree identification.

Girls taking the course are Pat McMonagle, Diane Rose, Mary Prinski, Barbara Schmitt, Ann Schmidt, Laurel Weiland, Barbara Benoit, Cindy Pepin, Joan McDonnell and Katie Prinski. Troop advisor is Kathleen Hogan with Mrs. Clifford D'Arcy and Mrs. Ray Gazley serving as consultants.

Resource personnel involved in teaching the Girl Scouts are Frank Opolka, conservation officer; Robert Timmer, district law supervisor for the conservation dept.; Dave Johnson, fish biologist; Charles Bomaster, district fire supervisor; Glenn Williams, district business executive; Joseph Vogt, district game biologist; Arthur Slaughter, geologist; Joseph Ball, water resources; and Wesley Lehman, district forester.

U.P. Dairymen Fight Merger With Wisconsin

MARQUETTE — Dairymen representatives have indicated that they believe it makes more sense to consolidate along lines they have suggested than the Chicago area cooperatives. If U.P. dairymen were pooled with Wisconsin they would lose control of their marketing order because of their small numbers and their differential in zone pricing over Wisconsin's base could be lost. It steps up 10 cents at Menominee, 10 cents at Iron Mountain-Escanaba, and 10 cents at Marquette.

They voiced unanimous opposition to a milk pool plan and launched a fight against it by authorizing the Michigan Milk Producers Association, their bargaining agent, to try to prevent the proposal from becoming a reality.

MMPA's initial prediction was that a favorable outcome is possible.

At Thursday's meeting in the Hotel Northland Vernon Bingham, Detroit, MIPA director of marketing, explained events leading up to the proposal and its prospects, if passed. Representing the U.S. Department of Agriculture, which will conduct hearings in Chicago May 16, on the pool plan, was Earl Guland, of Duluth, market administration in this region for the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The pool plan, known as Proposal 10, was made public in a notice of a hearing issued by the USDA Consumer Marketing Service.

Chief purpose of the hearing is to consider a new federal milk marketing order to regulate the Chicago milk shed, but a separate order for areas now regulated under the Rock River Valley, Milwaukee, Madison, Upper Peninsula and Northeastern Wisconsin Orders will also be considered.

Proposal 10 represents a counter proposal by 9 dairy cooperatives in Wisconsin whose

Area Bands Join Music Festival

The Escanaba Area High School Varsity band, concert wind ensemble and orchestra will compete Saturday in the Upper Peninsula band festival at Manistique High School.

The groups are under the direction of John Chown and Robert Chase and will be judged on tone, technique, interpretation, balance, blend and musical performance by a panel of judges in both prepared and sight reading divisions.

All performances by the 25 bands and orchestras entered in the competition are open to the public. The Varsity band will play at 9:30 a.m., the orchestra at 11 a.m. and the concert wind ensemble at 2 p.m.

Buses will leave the high school parking lot at 7:30 a.m.

Boudreaux Lose Injury Lawsuit

MARQUETTE—No cause of action was the verdict of a U.S. District Court jury which this week heard the case of Lucile and Raymond Boudreaux of Escanaba vs. the Fred R. Comb Construction Co. and others.

The jury of 6 men and 8 women received the case at 2:12 p.m. Thursday and deliberated slightly more than an hour before returning the verdict in favor of the defendants.

Claiming permanent injury resulted to Boudreaux in a fall from scaffolding while he was employed as a construction worker at K. I. Sawyer AF Base in February, 1962, the Escanaba couple had sought $330,000 in damages for personal injuries.

Co-defendants with Comb were the U.S. of America and Southern Engineering Construction Co. of California.

Forest Fires Burn 4 Acres In Esky District

Twelve forest fires were reported in the Upper Peninsula in the week ending April 15, burning 62.1 acres.

Two fires were reported from the Escanaba District (Delta and Marquette counties and the west half of Alger) burning 4 acres. To date it has had 10 fires burning 19.7 acres.

Twenty-one fires have burned 74.6 acres in the Upper Peninsula to date. Last year at this time 25 fires had burned 110 acres.

Retailers Back Parking Project

A Lucky Number promotion for May was planned by the Retail Division of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce at the Stone House Thursday. Details of the promotion will be mailed to the members of the division and the event will be publicized and also be given coverage at Sawyer AFB.

Future retail promotions include a June Moonlight Madness promotion and the traditional July Sidewalk Sale.

Members of the Retail Division reaffirmed their interest in establishment of a downtown parking area as a part of the municipal urban development program. A majority planned to attend the meeting of the Escanaba City Council last evening to make known their interest in the development of the downtown parking area since they feel that it is vital to the continued prosperity and economic welfare of the area.

Retailers in attendance were unanimous in their support of the position taken by the Escanaba City Council that the development of this downtown parking area must be completed without further delay.

Two Verdicts Left To Jury In Slick Trial

MENOMINEE — A Circuit Court jury in Menominee County Circuit Court was left with only two verdicts—manslaughter and not guilty—to consider today in the trial of Claire Gordon Slick, 44, of Ypsilanti.

Judge Ernest Brown of Iron Mountain Thursday ruled out first and second degree murder convictions as possible results of the trial.

"All murder must be premeditated or perpetrated," said Brown. "Perpetration shall be murder in the first degree. In order to convict you must be satisfied that the defendant intended to kill. The testimony does not substantiate that charge and the court is eliminating first degree murder and the same of murder in the second degree.

"Malice of forethought must be applied," Brown continued. "The court is satisfied that the people did not establish malice under our laws. Those two charges will be eliminated. Third degree murder (manslaughter) remains. You must find the defendant guilty of manslaughter or return a verdict of not guilty."

Brown made the ruling on a motion by Defense Attorney Kenneth O. Doyle as the defense completed its case and Prosecutor Russell Bradley finished questioning four rebuttal witnesses.

Slick was charged with murder in connection with the shooting death last Nov. 18 of Walter T. Wojcik of La-Branche.

Bradley and Doyle completed closing arguments this morning as the case neared a conclusion.

Doyle completed his defense Thursday afternoon, calling only four other witnesses in addition to the defendant. The witnesses, Samuel Polan of Inkster, Albert Dill of Livonia, Charles Cornwall of Rockwood and Milo Croff of Wayne, all were members of Slick's hunting party last fall.

Arts Festival For Youth Set At NMU May 7

MARQUETTE — An Upper Peninsula Youth Arts Festival will be held on the Northern Michigan University campus Sunday, May 7.

"A Day with the Arts" is the theme of the event which will be conducted by NMU faculty and students from the areas of music, art and drama.

The activities, to be held in the Russell Thomas Fine Arts Building, will begin at 1 p.m. with an art exhibit and demonstrations in ceramics and traditional crafts. Other events include performances by NMU's Arts Chorus and a faculty ensemble, high school ensemble competition, a theatrical presentation, a symphony concert, and a reception and dinner.

All high school students, in addition to those scheduled to participate in the numerous events, are invited to attend the festival which is being held in conjunction with the 1967 Michigan Week celebration, May 20-27.

Teachers And Unions

The Menominee School District voted more than $4 million last year to modernize its school plant. It was a big, generous gesture. The city had never voted such a huge amount for school housing before.

The action indicated that the community was well advanced in understanding of the needs of modern schooling and that it was moving to meet them, helped by a community feeling that it is riding an up tide in economic fortunes and that the future looks brighter than the immediate past. The city has been in the throes of industrial change which have affected so many northern communities so drastically, wiping out old payrolls before new ones could be established.

But Menominee's fine school-community relations have come apart at the seams in a big hurry. Its superintendent, one of the most highly-regarded in the Upper Peninsula, has resigned and the press in Menominee and Marinette prints an article almost daily about the squabbling between the board of education and the Michigan Education Association, which represents the teachers in the new bargaining on wages and working conditions under Act 379. It gives municipal employees the right to be represented by a union in bargaining on their employment.

Latest word from Menominee was that the MEA bargaining group would not meet with the board's bargaining group unless the press was excluded. The board said it couldn't exclude the press; that it was conducting public business, so the MEA didn't show up to bargain. The board then made public some of the demands of the teachers for a contract.

They include a $7,000 basic starting salary for beginning teachers, a shorter working day, more fringe benefits, more time off and fewer students in the classroom.

Unionists may react: So what? At last the previously non-unionized workers of the community — including the community's local government and school employees — are going to get the benefits of pay-or-work pressures.

But the implications are serious because we are dealing here with government services, not with production of industrial goods. It is one thing to stop making automobiles for a period and another to cut off the electric power or close the hospital. Should school children be sent home while the board argues with the teachers about how much they should be paid?

And if there is not to be a strike of some sort to enforce wage demands, how are these workers to bring pressures that workers in industry create with strikes? These are problems to be settled by the Legislature in amending Act 379. The act at present is faulty in its blanket regard for all representation. The act says municipal workers shall not strike, but MEA witnesses testifying before a House Labor Committee in Escanaba said they wouldn't make a non-strike pledge. The legislation is a can of worms.

In Escanaba schools, MEA members are reported to have agreed tentatively to ask for a beginning pay base of $5,700, compared with the current $5,350. This wouldn't be long-lived, of course, if Menominee gave $7,000, which is the MEA goal for Michigan.

We are more concerned about the angry situation created between the teachers and the board of education, and, seemingly, much of the community, than we are with the demands of the MEA. This is an asking price and must be compromised somehow because the community cannot conceivably intend to grant it. It would bring Menominee's operational school millage to 60.3 mills, an increase of 48.3 mills.

The Herald-Leader said the teachers demands appear to ask the board to budget $2,573,700 for teacher salaries and fringe benefits for the next school year. This year's budget for the same purposes is $770,724.

Acceptance of the MEA contract as it is would bring the school budget to $3,025,319, at $1,835,338 increase over this year, figuring the 30 additional teachers who'd be needed if the class size demanded were granted. School officials said that the class size demand would require operation of the school in shifts. Top teacher pay would be $16,045 for a teacher with a master's degree and 25 years experience. A time-and-a-half clause would pay from $11 to $27 an hour for overtime work.

The MEA said that the board of education's estimates of the cost of its package were excessive. MEA claimed that the salary increases sought would increase the present budget by less than a third of the board's figure, and that on fringes, "just because the sick leave would be increased from 10 to 15 days doesn't mean a teacher is going to use all of it. This clause could show no increase."

It's quite a package. If the teachers can get it some of them will lose their jobs because such a payoff should create quite a little competition for them. Teachers could go to the public with clean hands in demanding better pay if they would accept merit, which is a payment based on ability and performance, but they keep insisting on a system that gives equal reward to everyone, and in a profession which has found it very difficult to oust its incompetents. The cry has always been "tenure" (protection of job holders) and not "merit" (rewards for performance.)

Perhaps the current confrontation between teachers and communities was inevitable but it creates ill will that will linger and tend to poison school-community relations, which are very important to any community. The teachers are greenies in bargaining and they have taken all the tricks of the industrial bargaining and packaged them up like a bomb for a non-industrial situation. But the schools and communities, on their part, should acknowledge that teachers should share the affluence, if it is really here in the big bundles that we hear about.

$120 Million Gargle

A serious epidemic of halitosis is sweeping the country, as anyone who watches television is aware. An entire generation is in dire danger of being wiped out by nervous breakdowns caused by having to face the decision of whether or not to tell the boss or mother-in-law or somebody that he has bad breath. BAD BREATH!

Or could it be that the advertising industry is merely suffering an acute attack of a chronic ailment — bad taste? BAD TASTE!

It could worry. Americans will spend $120 million on mouthwashes this year, reports the Wall Street Journal — up 15 per cent from 1966.

"A Fellow Named Romney Went That-a-Way!"

Exile Tells Of Camp

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON (NEA) —

Concentration camps, whether in Castro's Cuba or Hitler's Germany, have one thing in common. Inmates frequently never know exactly why they are there.

This was the experience of a Cuban engineer who shall call Jose Ortega, who has just arrived in the United States.

Ortega was picked up by Castro's military one day and put in a concentration work camp without being charged or put on trial. He never did find out what he was supposed to have done wrong.

The camp was a weird mixture of men—criminals released from prison, homosexuals and also a good many men like Ortega who had never been accused of crime.

But all the prisoners had one thing in common. They had never been told why they were at the camp. They spent a good deal of time speculating on what their offenses had been.

There was a secretary to President Dorticcos who had once said Raul Castro was a feminine. There was a baseball pitcher who, after a game played in Canada, had said something against the Castro regime. There was a boxer who had been in the Olympic games. He said he had gotten drunk while in Germany and may have said something the Castro regime didn't like—but he didn't remember.

There was a doctor that some said had been living too high. There were employees of an airplane line. So far as anyone knew they hadn't done anything. But a passenger had once unsuccessfully attempted to commandeer by force one of the company's planes and after that every man in the company who hadn't proven his loyalty was rounded up and sent to a camp.

Men were constantly being moved. After a month, Ortega was moved to another plantation camp. It was similar but cruder. A month there and he was moved to still another camp. Here, instead of going to the cane fields daily, he reported to a factory that needed engineers. He was there a week.

Then, one night about 11, everyone in the "factory" camp was called out. A soldier read a list of names, announced that these men would be taken away by truck. He didn't say where or why. In two days, the truck came. Ortega and about 10 fellow prisoners were picked up. There were also men from other camps in the trucks.

Ortega was let off at the military headquarters in Santiago. He was told to go home, that he was being released provisionally "on condition that you behave."

He was told to stay off the main streets and not to talk about what had happened to him.

He was told he should be grateful to the Castro regime because he had been released despite his sins.

Some of the younger men on being released, were told to report to the regular army to fulfill their military obligations.

Ortega then proceeded to find a way to leave Cuba. He was never given a permit. But he found a way. He left illegally. But to tell how would shut a gate that others are now using and cost the lives of some men and women who want to escape.

Ortega never did learn why he had been imprisoned. He never learned either why he was released from the concentration camp. But he's not going back to find out.

The city of Escanaba staged the biggest patriotic event in the history of the city when a huge parade was held in honor of the men of Escanaba who had enlisted during the past week when a campaign to secure a large number of recruits in the city began.

The parade was held on the night of April 20, and the next morning, the twenty-five recruits left.

One of the most unusual recruits was Rev. T. C. Hoakley, pastor of the First Baptist church here. The Reverend was granted a leave of absence by his congregation and left for Detroit to join an army hospital corps that is being raised in that city.

West's Friendly Doubles Help

trump and when South responded five diamonds West stuck in one of those fatuous doubles. West did have diamonds galore but he did not have the prospect of taking any diamond tricks against a heart slam. Furthermore West doubled six diamonds after South had shown one king in response to five no-trump.

Victor Mollo now goes through North's reasoning process in bidding seven hearts. North counts six hearts, two spades, a spade ruff assuming, as is quite likely, that South will hold three spades, two top clubs, one top diamond and a successful diamond finesse for a 13 trick total.

Victor blames West's doubles for getting North to the grand slam. We aren't sure. Maybe North would have bid the grand slam anyway but if he had without West's friendly diamond doubling, South might have played East for the king of diamonds and gone down at seven.

North's opening two club bid was the popular catch-all two club opening that either shows a strong no-trump hand or a regular forcing two bid in some suit — not necessarily clubs.

South's two heart call was a positive response and North's two no-trump merely showed that North held a no-trump-type hand.

When South rebid to three hearts, North marked him with a six card suit. After all, South couldn't hold much in high cards, North was looking right at the king, queen and jack.

North probably should have raised from two to three hearts on the record round to make it possible to approach the slam by the cue bid route but now North was forced to go to Blackwood. This was not such an unpleasant prospect. He bid four no-

MEDICAL LABS

Most Americans are convinced — with considerable justification — that our nation has one of the best medical establishments in the world.

The illusion was shattered most recently by two personages with startling news about the medical labs to which so many of us must trust our lives from time to time.

The first, Dr. David J. Sencer, of the National Communicable Disease Center, told my Senate Antitrust and Monopoly Subcommittee that of the estimated 500 million lab tests done each year in this country, 25 per cent produce defective or dangerously wrong results.

And shortly after the hearings were concluded, I was visited by one Straybourne Betts, who is certified as a registered medical technologist by two mail order firms, but who is a dog.

It's an uneasy fact that only five states have statutes regulating clinical laboratories. In the other states, any high school drop-out can set up a laboratory in his basement — if he can get the business.

Straybourne's sponsor, by sending checks to two diploma mills, got by return mail impressive certificates, suitable for framing, declaring that the aging mongrel had duly qualified as a lab technician.

Meanwhile, Dr. Sencer cited some of the results of faulty lab analysis:

• A newspaperman died of medicines administered after a lab reported that his blood had normal clotting time. Actually it was slow to clot.

• Blood specimens from 33 patients reported by laboratories as malaria victims were rechecked by the Communicable Disease Center. Malaria was not found in any of them.

These are shocking facts and in pointing them out I realize that I may be intensifying the tension that every family feels while awaiting the results of a medical test.

We should also realize that a great many labs are well-staffed and well-run despite the lack of regulation. Certainly the present system is unfair to the college-trained technician who finds nothing in the law to distinguish him from Straybourne Betts.

A bill that I am co-sponsoring with Senator Lister Hill (D-Ala.), chairman of the Labor and Public Welfare Committee, would set minimum standards for laboratories and prescribe training requirements for those who work in them. Such legislation, it seems to me, is just too utterly sensible to be disregarded by Congress.

The millions of people who pay for medical tests each year should be buying accurate reports, not lottery tickets.

U.S. Senator

Dear Ann Landers: Recently you made the statement that people who treat animals as if they were humans ought to have their heads examined. I have lived among both animals and people for a good long time and I am in favor of treating animals BETTER than people simply because they deserve it.

When I was a young woman, I had the ridiculous notion that any husband was better than none, so, like a fool, I married the first man who asked me. To my everlasting credit, I recognized my mistake early and got rid of the lying, cheating tyrant. I am presently enjoying the companionship of a cat.

Now I am a queen in my home instead of an unpaid servant. I get affection when I want it and if I wish to be left alone, I need make no apologies. My cat is far more considerate and loyal than that heel who swore before God and man to cherish me 'til death do us part.

Did you hear of the old maid who said she didn't need a husband because she had a parrot who swore, a fish who drank and a cat who stayed out all night? Well, I'm with her.

Dear Con: Any woman who holds such a rock-bottom opinion of men should do some nice fellow a favor and stay single the rest of her life.

Dear Ann Landers: I am the tramp that "Mrs. Betrayed" wrote to complain about. Every word she said is true. Her description of me was perfect. And, I might add, her description of herself was perfect, too.

She is indeed attractive, well-groomed, well-educated, a fine hostess and she comes from a very distinguished family. I have no education to speak of and I am not beautiful. I don't know beans about entertaining company, and my family is from nowhere.

So, the question I'd like to ask "Mrs. Betrayed" is this: Why would a man who is married to such a wonderful woman spend time with a tramp like me?—DUMB BELLA

Dear Bella: Because she's there.

Dear Ann Landers: I am sick at heart as I write this letter. I read this morning where three small children suffocated to death in unused refrigerators. The fear and anxiety suffered by those little ones before they died is too horrible to contemplate. And it was so needless!

Several years ago I remember reading a letter in your column about this sort of carelessness on the part of mothers. You suggested the doors of the old ice boxes and refrigerators be removed. I'd like to improve on your advice if you will permit it.

Please tell mothers to ask the movers to place the old refrigerators with the doors toward the wall. This requires no time or energy, and the children are protected against possible tragedy.

Thank you, in advance for publishing my letter.—CONCERNED GRANDMOTHER

Dear Gran: I still recommend removing the doors. But I am going to address an additional plea to furniture movers the world over—wherever you may be.

Please tack this column up in the garage, the wash room, the warehouse, wherever you think it will get the greatest exposure. The simple act of placing the old unused refrigerator with the doors toward the wall could save hundreds of lives.

Want to say "no" to drinking without your buddies putting you down? Get cued in. Write for "Booze and You—For Teen-Agers Only," by Ann Landers. Send 35c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped and self-addressed envelope.

Hatlo's They'll Do It Every Time

Teen Queens Sound Off On School

TEEN QUEENS: The 1967 national Junior Miss Pageant just concluded its labors of judging "America's First Ladies of Youth" . . . 50 state finalists, all high school seniors. The sponsors made available its survey of their queenly views about school. Do they match yours or your girl friends? Nearly all—88 per cent—of these on-the-doopest-to-college lovelies plumped for "changes in high school education." (Why not? In a few weeks they're sweetly kissing their schools goodbye.)

Major recommendations were: oodles of study periods; elimination of final exams for students who clutch onto a B or better average all during school year; flexible course patterns (not always flat five days a week per subject); and introduction of personal appearance and etiquette courses (they need this?). One pretty, petite, elegant winner, Rosemary Dunaway, 17, from Little Rock, and on her first trip to New York—contended a personal survey footnote—she didn't at all like boys' way-out way of wearing long hair in the big cities.

YAY, SKINNY — TWIGGY IS HERE: A different dab of damsel is mod, top world model, Twiggy . . . newly landed from England. Now that she's here, we ruthlessly reveal her (inside-outside) vital statistics: 17, high school dropout, boy-cropped blonde hair, 91 pounds, 5-foot 6 high, 31, 25, 33 around

... 'Not wot you'd call a figger,' grins this cockney cutie. (Got something there!) Modeling fee, a piffing $125 an hour. (She's really got something there!!!)

Youth Beat

THE NATIONAL REPORT ON WHAT'S HAPPENING

BUCKS FOR BOYS AND BIRDS: That once moss-covered institution, the commercial bank, has grown lots more sprightly . . . one sign is that banks (at their discretion) now make loans to under-21s. For instance, for car loans (approved by parents), with that longed-for spring car as collateral . . . and to reliable, hard-working teen-age groups for practical projects, such as special summer activities of 4-H and similar organizations. But the biggest way, national banking authorities inform us, is in loans to students . . . this coming fall, or future years. Over $400 million will go over the money counters to almost half a million of you this 1966-67 school year. Up to $1,000 is borrowable by junior and senior college undergrads, $1,500 by grad students . . . interest is six per cent and you have until 10 years after graduation to repay. Uncle Sam stands back of the loans, and if your family is not so rich, good old Uncle Sam helps you pay the interest. Want some of those bucks for book learning? Over 7,000 banks are authorized to make these loans . . . to reach one of these sprightly banks nearest your home, check with the financial officer of the college you're sweating or yearning for.

Retailing: is mostly a type of selling . . . lots of variety . . . you may be selling almost any finished product made. Stores are hungry for girls, girls, girls (men, too . . . sometimes bossing the girls sometimes working for them). College education not essential . . . But be prepared to be competitive as a race horse, yet sensitive to others' feelings, common-sensical and organized. As this kind of a paragon you'll net — $6,500-$8,500 as a junior exec., $18,000-$50,000 in the big-time senior class.

Engineers can count on — right after graduation — $7,000 plus a year . . . are virtually always men (though two-thirds of firms would hire girls if available). Engineers command a surprising range of work — from food to homes, to clothing, to communications . . . in fact, over 150 specializations. Mushrooming technical trends, from undersea to outer space and everything between, insure a flow of jobs (read the acres of engineers wanted ads in the big Sunday newspapers). But you'd better be sure you're good at math, physics and chemistry . . . in fact, all "number" work and exacting detail sciences . . . Be ready for this kind of academic fodder through four years of a B. A. and, even better, right through a Ph. D. After that, if you rise to the top, you can rack up $30-40,000 a year.

TO KNOW MORE, MORE, MORE: Write for the 424-page, fact-packed "Career Opportunities" guide, free from: New York Life Insurance Co., Box YB, Madison Sq. Station, New York, N. Y. 10010.

WATCH OUT—TWIGGY CLOTHES THREATEN: Twiggy, the cockney toothpick who is the world's top model today, landed in the United States with her line of teen clothes . . . British-designed to fit her mini-"figger." We sneaked into the private hotel preview . . . viewed the Twiggy labels — shown by toothpick models — that are predicted to sell $10 million worth this spring and summer. Our spying eyes saw: dresses, shorts, suits, pants suits, a zippered tent . . . all running very short (11 to 13 inches above the knee), very skinny, very light, very bright. They carry names like, "Baby Doll," "Boys Type" . . . cost in the $20-30 range and up. The secret advance warning we send ahead is: American girls endowed with not unusual, not unattractive, and not undesirable proportions (like bosoms, like hips), had better bring along a giant shoehorn to squeeze into this twiglike Twiggy line.

SUGAR AND SPICE: Uncle Sam amplifies Youth Beat flash out of New York, last October that for the first time in juvenile history, A's were running away from home to the Big City in greater numbers than boys . . . Now the Department of Health, Education and Welfare reports that girls' delinquency rate in 1965 rose nationwide 16 times faster than boys' . . . Chief charges against these flighty birds were running away and ungovernable behavior.

May Conference On School Sites

MIDLAND (AP)—More than 200 residents of Michigan and several eastern states are expected May 4-5 in Midland for a conference on developing school sites.

Midland public schools will be host for the meeting, which is sponsored by the State Committee on Conservation Education.

The conference is expected to attract school administrators, school engineers, plant and grounds personnel, teachers, architects and landscape artists, said Albert Szok, conference coordinator.

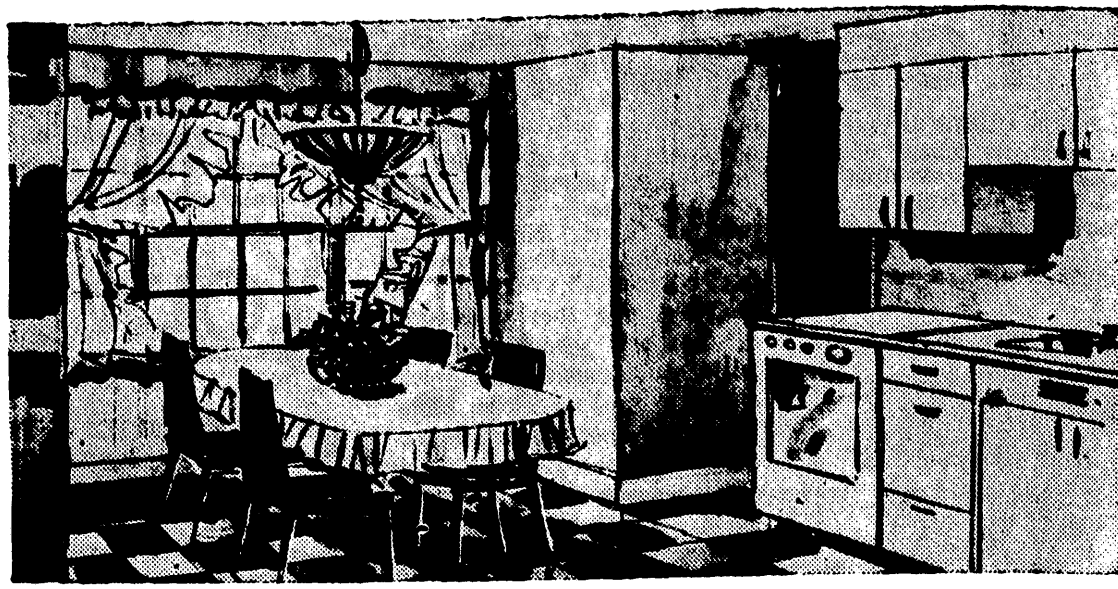

It is aimed at providing interested information to persons interested in developing outdoor areas, not only from the standpoint of the science field but also from the view of the total school curriculum, Szok said.

Stephen Foster wrote more than 200 songs.

GARRISON COLONIAL Projection of second floor, providing extra living space upstairs, is similar to the overhanging design of the blockhouses used by American pioneers centuries ago to ward off attacks by the Indians; hence the term Garrison Colonial.

INFORMAL DINING: Portion of kitchen where the family can eat breakfast and other informal meals without the necessity of any disturbance of the dining room, which is off to the right.

Colonial Gives Extra Space

By ANDY LANG

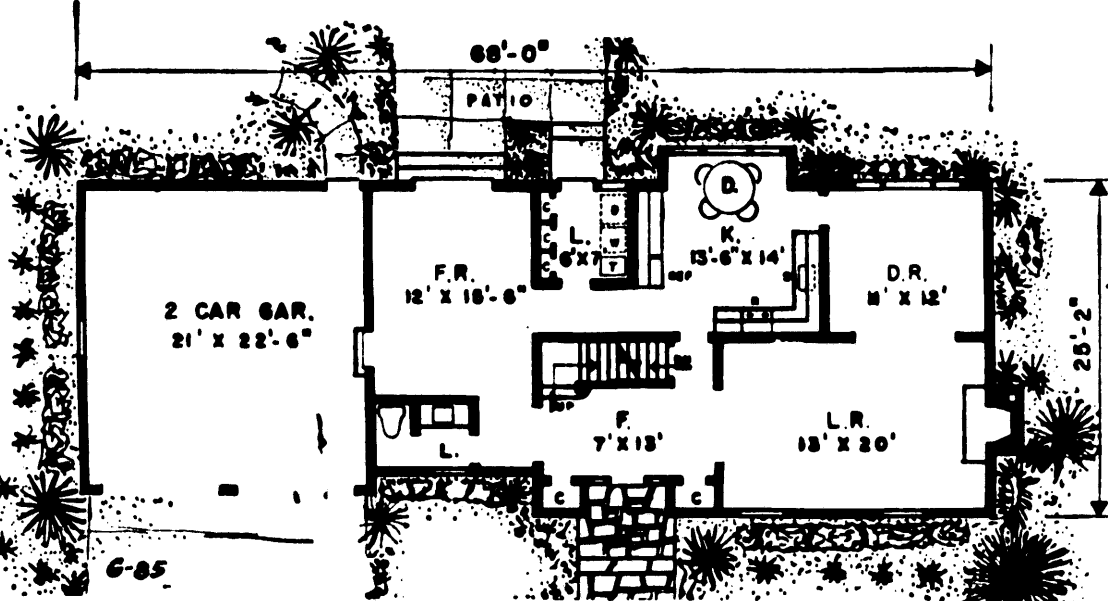

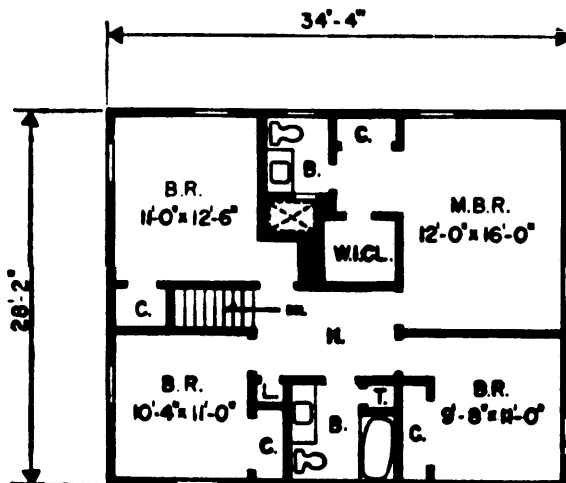

One of the most interesting of the many types of Colonial house designs is the Garrison. Patterned after the blockhouse utilized by the early settlers, its overhanging second story is its most distinguished feature. This second-story projection, excellent for warding off Indian attacks in the pioneer days, has the practical, modern-day advantage of providing more living space. An example of this is shown in the floor plans of the Garrison-type Colonial designed for the House of the Week series by architect William Chirgott. Because of the extra 3' extending beyond the dimensions of the basic part of the house, the second floor provides enough area for four bedrooms and two bathrooms, in addition to ample closet space.

The master bedroom has a private bath, fully tiled and with a stall shower, and a dressing alcove flanked by two built-in dishwasher to its modern range-and-oven unit. Generous counter and storage space is laid out with convenience and step-saving in mind.

The laundry-mud room is strategically located between the kitchen and the family room. This area houses not only a washer, dryer and laundry tub, but a storage wall closed off with sliding doors, excellent for storing cleaning equipment, work clothes and similar items. And, of course, because of the back door, this room is a perfect spot to remove muddy garden shoes, wet boots and other clothing that might otherwise cause the rest of the house to be tracked-up with dirt and grime.

FLOOR PLANS: Excellent circulation pattern of first floor is typified by strategic location of laundry-mud room between family room and kitchen, with a door from the rear patio and backyard. Lavatory to the left of the front foyer is convenient for family and guests.

G-85 STATISTICS
Design G-85 has a living room, dining room, kitchen, foyer, lavatory and laundry-mud room on the first floor, with a total habitable area of 1112 square feet. The four bedrooms on the second floor add 960 square feet to the living portion of the house. These figures do not include the two-car garage. But the over-all dimensions of 68' by 28' 2" (28' 2" on the second floor) do include the garage.

sizable closets, one of which is a walk-in. The main bathroom, readily accessible to the three other bedrooms from the upstairs foyer, is also fully tiled and has a tub, shower, towel storage closet and a built-in mirrored vanity. Upon entering the main floor of this house, one moves into a large foyer, 13' wide, centrally located to provide immediate access to all areas without taking unnecessary steps. To the right of the foyer, an arched opening leads directly into the living room, which has a charming Colonial fireplace centered on the end wall. The dining room is separated from the living room by another archway, large enough to act as a kind of divider yet not so large that it closes off the rooms from each other.

Still another archway, on the left wall of the foyer, leads to a convenient lavatory with a built-in vanity and full mirror. Also directly accessible from the foyer is a family room, featuring a handsome beamed ceiling and rustic-paneled walls. Indoor-outdoor living is brought together by a sliding glass wall, across the back of the family room, opening onto the patio and garden. The kitchen can be reached from the front foyer, the family room, the dining room and a rear door. Although the house is Colonial in feeling, the kitchen is functionally present-day in all respects, from its

Expect Fishing Pickup As Waters Drop

Fishing is slow on streams but is expected to pick up as water levels drop and streams clear, the Conservation Department reports.

A few rainbow were caught in the Two-Hearted and Sucker rivers and reports are a few are being put through lamprey weirs on both streams. The main rainbow run is not expected to develop before the last week of April or the first week of May.

Some good menominee catches were made at the mouth of Blind Sucker River and a few were taken in the lower Two-Hearted. Waters are too fast and roily for good fishing in the Two-Hearted, it is reported.

Yellow perch are being caught in the Les Cheneaux area, and should pick up in a couple weeks. Jumbo perch runs usually materialize at Les Cheneaux, Potagannising and Raber bays the last week in April and the first week in May. Some perch are being taken in Little Bay de Noc near Masonville.

A few smelt were reported taken in the Fish Dam River and some are starting into Nuns Creek, Mackinac County.

VFW Auxiliary Picks Delegates

The VFW Auxiliary met April 18 and chose as delegates Mrs. Eli Cousineau, Mrs. Elenor DeSautel, Mrs. Arthur Mattlin, Mrs. Earl Malloch, and Mrs. George Carney. Alternates are Mrs. Peter Kasbohm, Mrs. Edward Jorgenson, Mrs. Henry Baker, Mrs. Alec Cooper, and Mrs. Walter Garvin.

Chairmen will meet at the VFW Hall April 1:00 p. m. The district VFW meeting will be held April 29-30 at Ne-gaunee.

Plans were made for a Pasty Sale to be held May 11 by the VFW post. VFW members left April 20 for their work at Newberry State Hospital.

The VFW Schol of Instruction will be held April 25 at 8:00 p. m. at Escanaba.

Following the meeting lunch was served.

Boating Class Is Scheduled

A state of Michigan pleasure boating course will be offered with Rudie Brandstrom as instructor, beginning April 26.

Classes will be held every Wednesday at 7 p. m. Five one-hour study units are provided at no cost for the course or materials.

The course is primarily for the beginning boatman and includes information on selection of boat and motor, safety afloat, boat handling, Michigan laws and regulations and first aid. All boatmen are welcome. Interested persons may call the Community School office.

Mediation Meet Is Planned

Central League Honors Athletes At Cage Dinner

TRENARY — Basketball players, coaches and cheerleaders were honored at the 21st annual Central League banquet at the high school gym here Thursday night.

Special recognition was accorded Coach Steve Ellis' Trenary Comets who fashioned a perfect 15-0 record to capture the school's first league championship. Trenary received the league trophy from Dave Pelletier of Garden, vice president of the conference. He also presented championship trophies to the Cooks junior varsity team and the Rapid River 7-8th grade team as well as the Cooks cross country squad.

The eight player all-league team, selected by coaches, was announced by Norman Slough of Rapid River, league secretary. Players honored were Kim Peterson and Ron Begovac of Trenary, Neil Hartman and Bruce Swagart of Cooks, Larry Lippens of Rock, Gary Simonson of Perkins, Mike Thibault of Garden and Greg Viau of Rapid River.

Pelletier also presented the league statistics covering teams and individuals. Peterson swept all individual honors with 441 points for the season, an average of 29.4 per game, a single game high of 43 points, 177 field goals in the season and 20 in one game.

Peterson and Lippens were presented with All-Upper Peninsula basketball certificates by Ray Crandall of the Daily Press, president of the U.P. Sportswriters Assn.

"Non-conformity in Sports" was the subject of the main address by James E. Threthewey, veteran Marquette sports writer. Threthewey touched on the athletic careers of many former Upper Peninsula athletes and urged Central League athletes to "give that extra something that is necessary to excel in sports."

Toastmaster was Julian Vandevoye of Perkins, league president. The salute to the flag was led by Miss Marcia Waananen, grace by Jack Mikulich and closing prayer by Miss Cecile LaCombe. Dinner was prepared and served by the Lutheran Church Women's Guild.

Bill McGovern

Bill McGovern Resigns At RR

RAPID RIVER — Bill McGovern, Rapid River High School coach for the past three years, has announced his resignation from the post. He will remain on the faculty as industrial arts instructor.

McGovern, former Escanaba High School athlete, guided his Rapid River Rocket teams to 37 victories against 24 defeats. This year's team captured the Class D district tournament championship and his 1966 Rockets won the Central League crown.

McGovern attended Wisconsin State College in Menomonie where he earned two varsity basketball letters before serving two years in the army. He graduated from Northern Michigan University in 1963 and taught for one year at Escanaba High School before taking the Rapid River coaching position.

Lions Recognize Coach Of Year, Harold Johnson

GLADSTONE—Harold Johnson of Escanaba was honored Thursday night as Upper Peninsula basketball "Coach of the Year" at the 30th annual Gladstone Lions Club basketball banquet at the James T. Jones School.

It was the first time an Escanaba coach had won the honor from the U.P. Sportswriters Association since the annual selections began in 1950. Johnson, who announced his resignation last month to devote more time to administrative responsibilities, compiled a record of 151 wins and 63 losses in 11 years as Escanaba coach. His 1966-67 Eskymos won 18 games and lost only three, advancing to the finals of the Class A Regional Tournament in Grand Rapids.

Speaker for the program was Glenn Brown, assistant basketball coach at Northern Michigan University, as the Gladstone Lions honored varsity and reserve basketball teams at Gladstone coached by Bill Wood and Carl Backstrom, respectively.

Varsity players honored were John Watson, Steve Nelson, Dennis Anderson, Mark Stupak, James Swenson, Steve Schram, Gary Larson and Mark Weber, and managers Bill Marmalick and Jim Balding. Junior varsity players introduced were David Livermore, Eric Treichel, Dan LaCosse, Steve Maniaci, Bruce Richards, Larry Davidson, Gary Ellison, Randy Peltonen, Bill Hoehn, Bob Gustafson, and Ricky Lorenson.

Walker unloaded in the final stanza with 14 and 33 total to insure victory before 15,117, the largest crowd ever to watch pro basketball in San Francisco. Another 1,300 took in the game via closed-circuit television at the downtown Civic Auditorium.

The triple-pronged 76er attack compensated for a 43-point outburst from the Warriors' Rick Barry.

The 30-year-old Greer commented, "For an old man, I guess I had a good game. Every once in a while I look up and I see that crowd and I think, 'I don't believe he ever has had a better defensive game,'" added Hannum who appears on the verge of gaining revenge on Steve Nymal, Michigan State junior, plays on the varsity basketball and baseball teams. He's a second baseman.

Montreal (AP) — Little Henry Richard, the Pocket Rocket, is following in the footsteps of his retired brother Maurice, The Rocket, in scoring goals for the Montreal Canadiens in the National Hockey League playoffs for the coveted Stanley Cup.

The Pocket Rocket, a 5-foot-7 demon on skates, slapped home three goals to lead the Canadiens in a 6-2 rout of the Toronto Maple Leafs before 14,779 Thursday night in the opener of the best-of-7 final Cup series.

Henry now has scored 28 goals in 93 NHL playoff games. This compares to the 82 Maurice tallied in 123 playoff games before his retirement in 1960 as the No. 1 playoff scorer.

Little League Tryouts Slated

Boys who wish to play Little League ball this summer are advised that tryouts will get under way at Royce Park Saturday at 9 a. m. Boys living in the Escanaba franchised area who will be 9 before Aug. 1, but not 13, are eligible to participate provided they have registered. Blanks are available at Club 314, John's Market and the Office Service Co.

Because of the weather league officials did not anticipate too large a turnout for Saturday's work out, but with only two more weekends before player selections, candidates who are on hand Saturday will get a good opportunity to show their ability.

This year's tryout will feature a couple of innovations designed to give the managers better safety discipline. A batting tee will be used to check both fielding and batting abilities and prospects will actually be clocked for running time. The entire tryout will be concentrated on the diamond under the scrutiny of all managers, whereas in the past, the testing was scattered all over the field.

Boys are requested to bring their own gloves. All other equipment will be provided.

Carole Lee Is Keg President

Carole Lee was elected president of the Tuesday Early Bird bowling league at the annual banquet at the Dells.

Other officers named were Marie Way, vice president; Hilma Constantineau, secretary-treasurer; and Carol Ogren, sgt. at arms.

Cliff's won the first half and P&H Crawlers the second, with Cliff's taking the rolloff series. Members of the championship team were Rosie Thorsen, Mary Jane Milecki, Marlene Schroeder, Laverne Brannstrom and Betty Thorsen.

Individual awards went to Alice Jones, high average; Rosie Thorsen, high series; Barbara Beauchamp, high game, and Charlene Winters, most improved.

Bill (Sarge) Samowski, former Escanaba High School athlete, is one of 28 lettermen on the Central Michigan University football squad which began spring drills this week. Roy Kramer, making his debut as Central grid coach, has a squad of 73 candidates. His Chaps will practice four days a week for the next three weeks, closing with an intrasquad game Saturday, May 13.

Ray Neveau, former star athlete at Niagara High School and Oshkosh State University, is one of the top ranked handball players in the country. He recently reached the quarterfinals of the United States Handball Association's national championship tournament in San Francisco before bowling to 1966 runnerup Bill Yambrick of St. Paul. He sidelined four foes before suffering the defeat.

Bill Oumette, Don Neumann junior who started in basketball for the Mountaineers last winter, won the first event he entered in track this spring. Out for the sport for the first time, the 6 foot 3 inch Oumette won the Class A-B long jump in the NMU indoor relay with a leap of 19 feet 6 1/2 inches. Letterman back in action for Coach Dick Allen this year are Mark Eslinger, Pat Veretta, Joe Feltzer, Al Schupp, Rudy Steiner and Mike Garono.

Heating the returning track and field letterman at Crystal Falls is Dave Aultman, a junior who won the Menominee Range Conference and Upper Peninsula Class C pole vault championships as a sophomore. Other lettermen on Coach Stu Smith's Trojan squad are Jim Steinmetz, Gary Curnow, Jim Butler and Ray Karnack. Seven other letter winners from last year's team have dropped the sport this spring.

Bob Kivisto, son of a former all-time Ironwood athletic great, Ernie Kivisto, was honored with a berth on the Illinois High School All-State basketball team as a junior this year. The 6 foot 1 inch, 170 pound eager, in his third season on the East Moline varsity squad, has a career scoring total of 1,256 points. His dad is also his high school coach.

The new rubber aggregate track at Gwinn High School has given the Model Townner track and field athletes a considerable jump on the rest of the Upper Peninsula this spring. In addition to the obvious advantages of a solid surface for their runners, the track also allowed a much earlier outdoor training start this year. The black track surface absorbed the heat of the sun much faster than the surrounding earth and the snow disappeared four weeks earlier than usual.

Warren Stanchina of Escanaba, former Holy Name athlete, who is stationed with the U. S. Army in Africa, is one of three golfers selected to play an exhibition match with Peter Thompson, former British Open champion, at Asmara, Ethiopia. The exhibition will be played May 4.

Reds Ramble For Victory

By The Associated Press
Cincinnati's Don Pavletich, a reserve catcher, weighs 211 pounds and isn't what you'd call lightning fast on the bases. He needed all the help he could get in the 13th inning of the Reds' 3-1 victory over Los Angeles Thursday night.

Pavletich was on first base with a one-out walk when Gerry Arrigo bunted. Ron Perranicko, the Dodgers' third pitcher, grabbed the ball, thought about Pavletich lumbering towards second, hesitated just long enough, then wheeled and fired, hoping for the force.

He didn't get it. Pavletich slid in safely, moved to third on a force play and then scored the winning run when Vada Pinson dropped a tantalizing single into short right field. The Reds got an insurance run on Pete Rose's base hit.

Gary Nolan, an 18-year-old right-hander, worked the first nine innings for the Reds and struck out 12 Dodgers.

But Los Angeles pushed across a run in the bottom of the ninth on Jim Hickman's pinch double, tying the score at 1-1 and sending the game into extra innings.

It stayed that way until Perranicko hesitated in the 13th. Elsewhere in the National League, New York battered Chicago 6-1 and San Francisco ended the Dodgers' third pitcher, grabbed the ball, thought about Pavletich lumbering towards second, hesitated just long enough, then wheeled and fired, hoping for the force.

Tigers Use Weird Inning For 4-3 Win Over Brunet

DETROIT (AP) — Outfielder Al Kaline, a veteran of 13 big league seasons, called it "the weirdest inning I've ever seen." Manager Bill Ramey locked the California Angels' dressing room door to newsmen for eight minutes, then emerged and said, "We blew it."

Smith sent Jerry Lumpke to pinch-hit and Lumpke smacked a liner to center which outfielder Jay Johnstone dropped, allowing Northrup to score the winning run.

Johnstone was playing pretty shallow," said Lumpke. "But if he took it on one hop, we probably wouldn't have scored."

The Angels still had a chance to win in the ninth. Rich Reichardt singled and Don Mincher was safe when Dick McAuliffe fumbled his grounder. Hall missed on a bunt attempt and Freehan's snap throw to second nailed Reichardt, who was going with the pitch.

Hall singled off relief pitcher Fred Gladding's glove and Don Wallace, running for Mincher, took third.

Gladding worked the court to the last of the eighth with a 3-2 lead on the strength of a two-run homer by Jimmy Hall and a solo shot by Tom Satriano. Detroit scored on bases-empty home runs by Bill Freehan and Al Kaline.

Gates Brown and Kaline opened the eighth with singles and when Jim Northrup forced Kaline at second, Rigney brought in Minnie Rojas to replace Brunet.

Rojas uncorked a wild pitch, allowing Brown to score the tying run. Then he fanned Freehan and walked Norm Cash intentionally to get to Ray Oiler.

Tiger Tales

DETROIT (AP) — Tiger notes and quotes:
Manager Mayo Smith says outfielder Willie Horton, sidelined with a strained Achilles tendon in his left heel, may be out of action another two weeks.

"He's been taking batting practice and throwing," said Smith. "But no running. I'll wait until the doctor tells me Willie's all right and can start running."

Al Kaline, enjoying one of his best starts in years, slammed a home run off the Angels' George Brunet on a three-ball, no-strike count in the fourth.

Asked if he was hitting on his own, Kaline said: "Nobody swings on their own on a three-zero count. I had the hit sign. I was looking for a home run pitch and Brunet put a fast ball right down the middle."

Denny McLain was Smith's choice to face Minnesota's Dave Boswell tonight.

Catcher Bill Freehan, who has batted .234 for the past two years, has a six-game hitting streak going with nine hits in his last 20 trips. He had a home run and a single Thursday night.

"I've been working on a few things with Wally Moses (Tigers batting coach) and I'm meeting the ball better," he said.

Smith stuck with relief pitcher Fred Gladding in the ninth inning, even with the Angels' hand hitting power men, Jimmy Hall and Don Mincher, coming to the plate. Asked why he didn't bring in a left-handed pitcher to face the two power hitters, Smith said: "I've got confidence in Fred. He can handle himself out there."

Mincher reached first on an error by second baseman Dick McAuliffe and Hall's grounder curomed off Gladding's glove into left field for a single. But the Tigers won the game on a snappy double play when Gladding fanned Tom Satriano and caught pinch-runner Don Wallace on the front end of an attempted double steal.

C&H Reports Income Drop

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Columbia & Hecla has reported that its net income fell 10 percent in the quarter ending March 31.

Earnings were $1,496,395, or 69 cents a share. This compares with earnings of $1,632,142 or 77 cents a share for the same period in 1966.

President P.W. Robson said, "The decline in earnings from the first quarter of 1967, reflects the current softness in the durable goods segment of the economy, both in the United States and Canada."

"We had expected the effect of this adverse economic condition during this period to be offset by the contribution to earnings from the Calumet mining program. The delays in bringing the program into full operation and the costs involved account for the unfavorable earnings comparison," he said.

Council Urged To Move On Parking Lot

Escanaba's proposed downtown parking development received encouragement Thursday night from some of the property owners in the area who told the Council to move forward with acquisition of the needed land.

The encouragement came at a time when the Council was beginning to grow cool on a project that has brought only qualified offers of participation from the business people.

The proposal is to establish a free parking lot in the 1100 and 1200 blocks from the alley north of Ludington St. to 1st Ave. N.

This parking area would become the center for a shopping plaza development that planners say would revitalize the downtown business district and rescue it from further decline. The project was given priority by the city's planning consultants, Harland Bartholomew & Associates, at the request of the retail merchants about one year ago.

Since then there have been a number of false starts, particularly in proposals involving financing.

Costs Are Problem
The C. Y. Council proposed that owners of properties in the area would benefit from the development pay 75 per cent toward acquisition of the parking lot area. The city proposed to pay 25 per cent and clear and pave and light the parking lot.

Some of the property owners came back with a 60-40 (60 per cent city, 40 per cent property owners) plan and there were other suggestions from other factions. The Chamber of Commerce asked that the program be delayed, as did some of the property owners.

The Council several months ago decided to move forward despite the indecision of the merchants and began to take options on the properties needed for the parking lot. The price offered was the highest that had been listed by the appraisers.

Condemnation Suggested

City Manager George Harvey told Council Thursday night that of the 11 properties involved, he had been able to secure options on only four. He suggested that

Bar To Honor Frank Murphy

President Johnson and Governor Romney have proclaimed May 1 as Law Day. William M. Ellmann, president of the State Bar of Michigan, said, "The theme of this the 10th annual celebration of Law Day is the famous saying of Theodore Roosevelt: 'No man is above the law, no man is below it.'"

Charles R. Rutherford of Detroit, general chairman for Law Day in Michigan said, "This year the State Bar's Central Observance of Law Day will be held in Harbor Beach, Mich., to honor the late Frank Murphy. He was one of two Michigan men to serve on the U. S. Supreme Court."

Rutherford said, "The Law Day celebration will take place on Sunday, April 30, at 2 p. m. in front of the Harbor Beach Museum Memorial (the Frank Murphy home). All who wish to attend are cordially invited. Senator Philip A. Hart will be the principal speaker and will dedicate a Michigan Historical Commission marker in honor of Frank Murphy."

The ceremonies will be presided over by President Ellmann of the State Bar. Other speakers will include Professor Harold Norris of the Detroit College of Law and author of the book, "Mr. Justice Murphy and the Bill of Rights," Hudson Mead Jr., president of the Michigan Historical Commission, and his father Harry Mead, a close friend and campaign manager for Frank Murphy. Remarks will also be made by Miss Marguerite Murphy, a niece of the late Justice Murphy.

Mayor George Scott, of Harbor Beach and the Mayor Pro Tem Dan Marlowe will host the ceremonies. Father Cornelius McEachen, pastor of our Lady of Lake Huron Church in Harbor Beach will deliver the invocation. The Harbor Beach High School band will be on hand to open and close the program.

Following the program the Murphy home will be opened for tours.

Local Bar Associations throughout the state will be sponsoring other programs in their area to celebrate Law Day. The men involved in these celebrations include Nicholas P. Chapek of Escanaba.

4-H Awards Night Held At Rapid River
Rapid River 4-H Club held an awards night Monday evening at the Rapid River elementary school. Twenty-seven girls were awarded project certificates and year pins. Special gold seals were presented for outstanding project work to clothing members; Cindy Martin, Carolyn Utterback, Mary Weinzierl, knitting, Crystal Gibson, Judy Bjurman, Marilyn Case; leathercraft, Carol Viaw, Tina Oberg, Cindy Pike, Karen Vanderhoff, Sandra Boyer, Debbie Young.

Judy Bjurman was recognized by Mrs. Henry Vietzke, Rapid River organizational leader, for her county blue ribbon award received for modeling at Delta County Achievement Show. Rapid River members receiving county blue ribbons for garment construction were Carolyn Utterback, Barbara Pyke, Marilyn Case, and Judy Bjurman. Garment construction was judged April 17 at the Delta County Building, Escanaba.

Rapid River 4-H leaders honored were Mrs. Stanley Pyke, Mrs. Ernest Vanderhoff, Mrs. Norman Slough, Mrs. Clifford Noble, Mrs. Harvey Dencau, Miss Kathy Utterback and Mrs. Henry Vietzke. Refreshments and recreation followed the awards presentation.

Rapid River 4-H will offer a summer program this year for the first time. Organizing the program will be Miss Kathy Utterback. The first organization meeting will be announced soon.

Knitting Winners
A selection of knitted garments was made for exhibit at the U.P. State Fair.

In the Senior Miss Division were Donna Rasmussen and Regina Olson from Ensign, Linda Moras of Wells and Peggy Tatrow of Garden were selected to represent the Junior Miss Division.

In the Young Miss division was Miss Annette Kulack of Rock, and a boy was selected also, James Lundberg of Ensign.

Girls receiving honorable mention with a blue ribbon were Nancy Weldum, Rock, Doris Lambert of Ensign, and Kathy LeClaire of Soo Hill in the Senior Miss Division. Girls in the Junior Miss Division were Marilyn Case of Rapid River, and Judy Bjurman of Rapid River.

The Young Miss division winners were Barbara Pike of Rapid River and Roxanne Rasmussen of Garden.

if the Council proposes to proceed with the project as a whole it must use its "power of eminent domain" — act to condemn properties so they can be acquired for the public benefit.

"The alternative is to end the project right here," he said. Councilman Ed Cox questioned proceeding toward a program of urban renewal when it has not been determined what the total cost will be nor where the city will find its share of the cost.

Councilman George Ruch said that if the city is to consider "changing the face" of the downtown and entering into urban renewal it must consider the use of condemnation also. While there will be problems, he said he did not think there would be hardship cases which could not be assisted.

Gabriel Meretsky, property owner, was invited by Mayor Harold Vanlerberghe to comment, and said that he favored moving forward with the project.

"Here is a thing we need," he said. Failure to act now would "destroy the downtown section," he added.

Council In Control

Atty. Dean Shipman, speaking for Charles Gessner, one of the major property owners in the area and former retailer here, gave the parking development project additional encouragement.

He said that Gessner, while he would be one of those most heavily assessed for improvement, felt the Council should proceed with condemnation if necessary to accomplish the plan. "To defer will be to encourage inner-core rot."

Later in the discussion Shipman, speaking as a citizen, urged the Council to be decisive and unafraid in its actions to meet community needs. "You can listen to all the groups you want to, but you must make the decisions," he said.

Ralph McLaughlin suggested

Concert Guests Must Wait Seats

Robert Bauer, president of M & M Community Concerts Association in Marinette and Menominee today reminded Escanaba members of Community Concerts that the final M & M concert of the season will be held Monday, April 24.

Attendance has been at capacity or near-capacity at all of the concerts thus far and expectations are that the entire sold-out membership will attend this final concert of the Indianapolis Symphony. Bauer said that ushers will be instructed, as in Green Bay and other communities, to have visiting members wait in the foyer until local members have been seated.

He said that Gessner, while he to the Council that a committee of five property owners and two merchants work out a finance participation proposal to submit to the Council. He was asked to work through the Chamber of Commerce retail committee and to bring in a proposal by May 18 or earlier if possible.

Dick Pryal, one of the retailers in the area, questioned the city's use of parking meter revenues, said that more should be used to acquire off-street parking, and suggested a 50-50 plan of participation on the cost of acquiring the proposed parking lot. He encouraged condemning property to accomplish the plan. He was encouraged to work with the McLaughlin committee.

Airport Progresses
The Council also heard a report from John Anthony, chairman of the Airport Advisory Committee, regarding the plans for airport development. The Committee is satisfied with the plans for a new terminal building.

Plans for the terminal building and for an extension of the east-west runway are to be submitted to the Michigan Department of Aeronautics for approval.

City Attorney John G. Erickson advised the Council that the paving with concrete of an alley between 4th and 5th Aves. S., and 8 to 9th Sts., is "valid" — taking precedence over petitions asking for blacktop paving.

or thought-to-be failures, in practicing the brotherhood of man have produced the alienation from us and all our causes of works among the young people, and they are marching to a different drummer."

Students Demand More Active Role In Universities

Heightened student participation is one of the most profound changes in the role of today's university, Dean Lynn W. Eley, University College, Washington University, St. Louis, said today at the University of Michigan.

Dr. Eley was keynote speaker for the Correspondence Study Division of the National University Extension Association.

"Students, at least the pacesetters, are demanding that they participate actively in the teaching and learning process. No spoon-feeding for them, no droning on in 50-minute segments. They want to pick the professor's brains, and if the professor cannot answer their questions about his subject in terms meaningful to them, they are prepared to protest."

"The pacesetting students of this college-age generation are accustomed to participating, and they are accustomed to viewing the older generations with more than the usual, historic resentment of the younger generation for the older."

"Our generations' failures, or thought-to-be failures, in practicing the brotherhood of man have produced the alienation from us and all our causes of works among the young people, and they are marching to a different drummer."

New home in your plans?

... play it SMART
... play it SAFE

If next winter hits us like this past winter did, you will want to be sure that you have the best possible heat to guarantee your family complete protection against the icy cold. You will want this fuel to be economically priced and you'll want to be absolutely sure that the fuel you choose is completely safe. That is why the smart homebuilders are choosing...

the dependable fuel...

OIL HEAT!

OIL HEAT IS THE SAFE HEAT
It is the non-explosive heat that guarantees peace of mind and allows us to truly relax in our new home!

OIL HEAT IS THE ECONOMICAL HEAT
It heats fast, so it doesn't use as much, it won't vary in price by the amount I use and I know that it's fairly priced.

OIL HEAT IS THE CLEAN HEAT
This is a special treat for my wife. She hates a dirty house and we know that by using oil her job will be much easier.

OIL HEAT IS THE HOT HEAT
When I want to shower or my wife wants to wash clothes, we want hot water NOW and we know that oil heat is much faster.
